

HOME DISINFORMATION PEOPLE RAMBAM KLAUSNER BC271433

Did James R. Dunn read before shredding?

"James R. Dunn's venture into playing the role of judge has failed, and all that remains is to see how much farther he will succeed in dragging the Los Angeles Superior Court into disrepute before he is asked to leave the stage." — Lubomyr Prytulak

Lubomyr Prytulak
Ukrainian Archive, www.ukar.org
[Address]

[Telephone]
lubomyr@shaw.ca

04 December 2002

Gary Klausner
Supervising Judge, Civil Division
Los Angeles Superior Court
111 North Hill Street
Los Angeles, CA
USA 90012

Re: Rambam v Prytulak BC271433 James R. Dunn

Gary Klausner:

Defendant Lubomyr Prytulak received his first feedback concerning James R. Dunn's reaction to Motion-to-Quash-D on 27-Nov-2002, when the following entry appeared under Proceedings Held on the Los Angeles Superior Court web site Case Summary for Case BC271433:

11/25/2002 at 09:00 am in department 26, James R. Dunn, Presiding Motion for an Order - Granted in Part

On 03-Dec-2002, 08:37am Pacific Time, FedEx delivered to the Court Prytulak-Request-For-Minute-Order which complained that Granted in Part was not only uninformative, but also clashed with statements mailed to Lubomyr Prytulak by Rambam lawyer Gary Kurtz.

The following morning, 04-Dec-2002 at 07:26am Pacific Time, Lubomyr Prytulak observed that the Los Angeles Superior Court online Case Summary for Case BC271433 had changed Granted in Part to Motion Denied:

11/25/2002 at 09:00 am in department 26, James R. Dunn, Presiding Motion for an Order - Motion Denied

It gives Defendant Lubomyr Prytulak little satisfaction to learn that his submissions are being read for the purpose of helping the Dunn-Kurtz-Rambam coalition harmonize its presentation by doctoring the trial record, but are not being filed, and with the accumulation of unfiled submissions now having risen to eight:

1. Motion-to-Quash-B dated 27-May-2002
www.ukar.org/temp/quash02.html
2. Prytulak-Query-B dated 14-Jun-2002
www.ukar.org/temp/query01.html
3. Motion-to-Quash-C dated 29-Aug-2002, accompanied by a money order for US$193
www.ukar.org/temp/quash03.html
4. Rambam-Objection-C dated 03-Sep-2002
www.ukar.org/temp/obj03sep.html
5. Prytulak-Reply-C dated 13-Sep-2002, accompanied by a money order for US$23
www.ukar.org/temp/rep13sep.html
6. Prytulak-Reply-D3 dated 05-Nov-2002
www.ukar.org/temp/rep05nov.html
7. Prytulak-Reply-D7 dated 21-Nov-2002
www.ukar.org/temp/rep21nov.html
8. Prytulak-Request-For-Minute-Order dated 02-Dec-2002
www.ukar.org/temp/rep02dec.html

One may account for the reliability of the above spoliation by supposing that because each Lubomyr Prytulak submission has taken to including a complaint of the expurgation of previous submissions, James R. Dunn feels he has no choice but to expurgate it as well, thereby excluding Lubomyr Prytulak from participation as punishment for his complaining of having been excluded from participation.

I ask you to awaken to the understanding that it is in the interests of justice that this circle be broken through external intervention. As James R. Dunn has long ago wandered beyond mere error into the realm of flagrant coram non iudice, and after that into the realm of crime, nothing prevents you, as Supervising Judge of the Civil Division, from initiating such intervention. As James R. Dunn now unabashedly flaunts his profound and unwavering loyalty to Kurtz-Rambam not only by his systematic purging of the trial record in their favor, but even by denying Lubomyr Prytulak a minute order covering the Prytulak Motion-to-Quash-D that was heard 25-Nov-2002, any hope that Rambam v Prytulak can be redeemed by a mere admission of suppressed documents to the trial record has vanished. What must be recognized now is that James R. Dunn's venture into playing the role of judge has failed, and all that remains is to see how much farther he will succeed in dragging the Los Angeles Superior Court into disrepute before he is asked to leave the stage.

Lubomyr Prytulak

HOME DISINFORMATION PEOPLE RAMBAM KLAUSNER BC271433